1. FIND THE OCCUPATION

This is a piece of embroidery from England that is really old, more than 650 years. It cost a lot of money and only the very richest people could afford to buy it. The embroidery was once attached to a cope. Cope is the name of a kind of cape. What was the occupation of the person who wore the cope with this embroidery?

Take the last letter in the answer and write it in square 8 on the back.

2. FIND THE PATTERN

Find the patterns in the picture. In the 1800s in England there was a man named William Morris. He was good at almost everything. He was a painter, did weaving, wrote books, knew Icelandic, made wallpaper and furniture. He created the beautiful pattern in the picture.

Take the last letter of the artist's surname and write it in square 7 on the back.

3. WHICH COUNTRY?

This is the flag of the United Kingdom, which is called the Union Jack. Many people think it looks good, so they have it on their clothes or on things in the home. The countries that make up the United Kingdom are Northern Ireland, Wales, Scotland and ................ What is the missing country?

Take the second letter in the answer and write it in square 3 on the back.

4. FIND THE NAME OF THE COAT IN THE EXHIBITION

During the First World War, soldiers dug ditches in which they could hide from the enemy. Many soldiers wore a coat like this as a raincoat. The name of the coat comes from the ditches that the soldiers dug. What is the coat called?

Take the third letter of the answer and write it in square 6 on the back. Then take the sixth letter in the answer and write it in square 5 on the back.

5. WHAT ARE THE CLOTHES CALLED?

The English started wearing this garment for lounging in after they had seen it during their travels in India. When darkness falls and your eyelids feel heavy, you may do as many people do and change into ............. What is the garment called?

Take the fifth letter in the answer and write it in square 1 on the back.
6. FIND THE DOLL

Find the doll with the checked dress. The check pattern on the doll’s dress is called tartan. The name comes from a country called Scotland.

- Take the second letter in the name of the check pattern and write it in square 2.

---

8. WHAT IS HE GOING TO DO?

Many of the garments we wear when we are in the outdoors or doing sport come from England. In the picture you can see a red jacket that many wear when they are going to .......... What word is missing from the sentence? Here’s a clue: They bring a friend with four legs and a mane.

- Take the first letter in the word and write it in square 10.

---

7. FIND A QUEEN

In the old days people believed that if you had a coin in your shoe at your wedding, your life together would be happy. You might wonder if they didn’t get sore feet! Maybe that happened to the British queen when she married in 1840. What was the queen’s name? Here’s a clue: She has the same name as Sweden’s crown princess.

- Take the third letter of the queen’s name and write it in square 4.

---

9. WHICH SPORT?

Did you know that the rules of many different sports were invented in Britain? The man in the picture is wearing special clothes to play a sport where you use a racket and ball. Which sport is the man playing?

- Take the second letter in the answer and write it in square 9.

---

PUT THE LETTERS IN THE RIGHT SQUARE

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>1</th>
<th>2</th>
<th>3</th>
<th>4</th>
<th>5</th>
<th>6</th>
<th>7</th>
<th>8</th>
<th>9</th>
<th>10</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>